ROME Series
罗马系列

The amiable, natural and modern high-rise homes no longer express their desires for comfort by the vanity. A square and a corner often find their unity in the functions and good tastes. Experiencing a kind of simple and natural life style hidden under the urban prosperity originates from a comfortable feeling of the inner heart.

All kinds of furniture products can integrate different styles. Clear-cut lines and planes constitute the strong and graceful profile. Irregular shapes seem casual and random, but original and surprising. Compact and poised feelings are secured with simple geometric designs. Whichever design is perfect in quality.

Life should be comfortable for itself, just like seeking for the original source of the flowing water. Not being form over substance, the person in it knows the natural fashion sense at the very beginning.

Noble and dignity is neither from the excess of decoration nor the shallow hypocrisy, but from the interior of the heart of people with characters of elegance and tradition which are aesthetics from history and culture accumulation.

The reasons why designers exercise the connotation of history and genuineness of noble to ensure outstanding attributes of sofas for your superior and unique taste are that they know noble and dignity originates from long studying of history and humanities, grace and elegance derives from materialism and trueness.

The active space invokes the aspiration for the memorable warmth, freedom, peace, quite, health and unconstraint life which are deeply inside of the heart, and makes the space with unlimited potential power and fashion.

A house restored the nature of life, leisure and grace, is unsealed to and aspired by people. The originality of life which carries all the close relationships and affections of human beings directs the designers to integrally consider about the ultimate associations of space, culture, nature and people
